

We gratefully accept the following items:

- Antiques and collectibles
- Art
- Books
- Camping equipment
- Cell phones
- CDs, records and cassettes
- Clothing and accessories (we will take well-worn textiles as long as they are not wet or mildewed)
- Computers - desktops, laptops and monitors
- Computer accessories - printers, mice, scanners, keyboards, etc.
- Computer software (factory-sealed)
- Small electronics
- Household appliances (no large appliances)
- Household items
- Jewelry
- Lamps and light fixtures (no fluorescent lights)
- Linens
- Portable heaters (must have three-prong plug)
- Rugs
- Shoes
- Sporting goods
- Tools
- Toys

We're sorry, but we cannot accept the following items:

- Any item recalled by the Consumer Product Safety Commission. (Please check www.cpsc.gov for current list.)
- Animals
- Auto parts (including tires)
- Fire arms or ammunition
- Hazardous materials including gases, oils, paint, paint thinner, flammables and poisonous materials. (These can be taken to your county Hazardous Waste station)
- Large appliances, such as dishwashers, washer, dryers, refrigerators and hot water tanks (Seattle City Light customers can have their refrigerator or freezer picked up for free - see their website for more information.)
- Mattresses and box springs